Atlantic Electropoise: Gentlemen—For the past five years my wife has been a sufferer from dyspepts. So completely did the disease make a wreck of her former self that life was almost despaired of. Her nervous system was almost enincly dostroyed, and the slightest noise would throw her into a nervous spasm, which would last for hours. Medical shill failed to bring any re-

Through the recommendation of an eminent divine we were induced to try the Electropoise. After a persistent use of the instrument, the effect has been wonderful Hur nervors system has been restored to its almost normal condition; her direction is wonderfully improved; she is rapidly gaining in Essh; and, upon the whole, is making a rapid recovery, which speaks volumes for the westerful curstive powers of the Electropoise, as her case was considered hopeless. If any are skepileal on the subject, let them try the Electropoise, and its wonderful powers will quickly dispetall daubt. Yours truly, W.M. PROPST

Another Man's Wife.

A decided flatter of curlosity and haifshocked auticipation sgitated the congregation of the Reformed Presbyterian church, Willoughby avenue, Brooklyn, when the Rev. J. F. Carson ascended the pulpit night

The occasion for all this trepidation is to be sought in the published announcement of the theme which Mr. Careen had chosen for his discourse. It was a catchy title:

"A glance at another man's wife."
The preliminary exercises were got through with becoming decorom, but a keen observer would have remarked a scarcely perceptible movement of relief when the reverend gentlemen at length stood up to announce the text. It was, "Remember Lot's Wife."

The first portion of the sermon consisted of a resume of the history of Lot, whom the preacher described as a shrewd and soffish individual. After saying that the first great mistake of Lot's life was his selection of Sodom as a residence. Mr. Carson gave his nearers a taste of genuine o'd-fashioved orthodoxy.

At a later period the preacher said, re-ferring to the uselessness of unpractical sentimentality.

"There is too much weeping in hundred dollar handkerchiefs ever existing destitution, and then putting a penny in the collection for the poor,"

Up to this point not a hint had escaped to justify the anticipation that had been naturally aroused by the title of the sermon. Now, however, there was a little thrill of excitement when the preacher said impres

"When you find a young man in a gathering like this who firds it difficult to keep his eye from wandering to a certain quarte you may eafely consider that the heart is leading in that direction."

At this juncture profound and painful si-lence reigned throughout the church. Everybody thought that the hour had at last come, and everybody wondered who the lady was, and what her husband would think about it all. But the whole affect was almost immediscely spolled by the reverend gentleman resuming gently:

"And if the young man's heart is steady the minister will, in time, have a call from a very nervous, but a very happy youth.'

Kisses $8,67 Per Smack.

The price of public kissing and its companion joy, hugging, was fixed at $8 67 by the Mayor of Camden yesterday. Inability LUMBER, SHINGLES, LATHS, NAILS, LIME to settle for the bliss entitles the debtor to twenty or thirty days in jail, according to

That was the standard set by the mayor when Jeseph Boody, white, and Nettie Jones, colored, who were arrested by Officer Butts within the shadow of the City Hall on Sunday, came before him to answer the heinous charge. Neither defendant was greatly abashed, but Neitle denied the charge with considerable energy.

"Were you drunk?" asked the Mayor of Boody.

"No, sir; I wasn't, and I don't think I was doing anything out of the way." "D.do't you hug and kies this colored woman? "Yes; I kissed her. I have known her five years, and I didn't think there was any harm in it."

"Are you a married man?" "I have been, but don't live with my family now."

"No wonder. I'll fine you $5, and the costs will be $3.67. If you don't pay you will go to jall for thirty days. The woman will have twenty days." Some hours later Boody secured his ra-lease by paying the score. The woman was still in jail last night.—Philadelphia Bucklen's Arnica Salve
